YES!

I'd like to be on the notification list for the "Shoestring Budget" Series

By supplying your email address and name below, you will receive a ridiculously high discount (almost free) on ALL THREE E-books as described below. You'll also receive a special surprise bonus that you'll learn about later. This is just for the notification and discount. You have no obligation to buy anything now or later. And, as always, if you do purchase this series, you'll have a 100% guarantee - you can receive a complete refund at any time, no questions asked.

Here's what's in this series:

- "How to Write a Book on a Shoestring Budget in Your Spare Time"
- "How to Publish Your Book on a Shoestring Budget: All Your Questions About Self-Publishing Answered"
- "How to Market and Sell Your Book on a Shoestring Budget"

These books are written for the first time writer, although the information is applicable to any writer. The focus is on getting your book written, published, and sold with as little cash-outlay as possible. I'll offer suggestions, tips, and many resources - including a step-by-step guide to publishing your book through Lightning Source.

Remember that we hate spam as much (maybe more) as you. So, know that your email address won't be sold, given away, rented, folded, spindled or mutilated. It's just going to be used for this announcement. Period.
