"I am so pleased that I used Printectual to find the right printer at the right price. I compared to the quote I got on my new book and I saved $18,000. I would not think of printing another book without going through Printectual." - ~Robert W. VanHoose

"Printectual is a brilliant idea! I have heard of similar services, but I don't trust them -they don't tell us what printers they're working with. Your printing partners are the same ones I've been using for over a decade to print books because I can count on their quality and customer service. I'm looking forward to using Printectual for my next project -- it will save so much time & hassle. Thanks!!" ~Liz Tufte
