Elegant Self-Publishing Book Covers on the Cheap

Self-Publishing Writers Can Now Choose Book Cover Designs From a Catalog of covers, and still get a one-of-a-kind cover.

How can this be?

Write Side Out offers an on-line catalog of custom book cover designs. This new service makes shopping for graphic designs fun, easy and affordable for the self-publishing writer.

Write Side Out's "Book Cover Catalog" offers a unique service in the world of digital and print publishing. Anyone planning to publish a book can browse through the on-line catalog, choose a cover design and have it delivered in a complete book-marketing package that includes graphics for both web and print.

Until now, obtaining book cover designs usually involved contracting with a graphic designer or publisher for cover art. The cost and difficulty involved in this process has prevented many self-publishing writers from even attempting to find professional cover art. Now, Write Side Out's Book Cover Catalog makes it fun and easy to choose and use professional cover art for books.

Self-Publishing Comes of Age

At just $255.00 for a complete marketing package that includes files ready for the web or for a printer, the Book Cover Catalog makes custom book cover graphics affordable for self-publishing writers and print-on-demand presses.

Each design in the catalog is one-of-a-kind. When a design is sold to you, it is removed from the catalog. They customize the book title and author name, then delivered this in a number of different files and formats that include 3-dimensional views of the book for web site sales, flat views of the design for print and posters, as well as illustrations of the book being used for use as a web site illustration.

You are also given the opportunity to purchase your book cover printed on posters, t-shirts, tote bags and more in any in quantities as small as one item through Write Side Out's on-line shop.

And remember... they remove that book cover from the catalogue once you have made your purchase -- one of a kind.
